Uttara University celebrated the unveiling of two remarkable literary works at the Amar Ekushey Book Fair 2025 on February 28, 2025.

The prestigious event took place at the Bangla Academy Book Unveiling Stage, where distinguished academicians, faculty members, students, and literary enthusiasts gathered to mark this special occasion, according to a media release.

The ceremony featured the official launch of "Deep Inside," authored by Professor Dr. M. Azizur Rahman, Founder Vice-Chancellor of Uttara University, and "LEKHONI," a literary journal edited by Professor Dr. Eaysmin Ara Lekha, Vice Chancellor of Uttara University.

These publications add significant value to the academic and literary landscape, reflecting the university's commitment to knowledge and creative expression.

The event was graced by Chief Guest Dr. Halida Hanum Akhter, Public Health Epidemiologist and Founding Director of BIRPERIT, who commended the authors for their valuable contributions to literature and academia.

She emphasized the importance of such publications in shaping intellectual discourse and inspiring future generations.

A large number of faculty members, students, officers, and staff of Uttara University attended the unveiling ceremony, making it a memorable and inspiring gathering.

The university provided a dedicated bus service, ensuring smooth participation from the campus, the release adds.
