

UU hosts seminar on Sustainable Development Goals for Healthy Planet

Daily Sun Report, Dhaka

Uttara University organised a seminar on Sustainable Development Goals for a Healthy Planet on Wednesday.

The event, jointly organised by Uttara University's Institutional Ranking Cell (IRC) and the Centre for Research and Training (CRT), aimed to enhance awareness and understanding of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), focusing on SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals.

The seminar brought together experts, faculty members, and stakeholders to explore how global partnerships can drive sustainable development and contribute to a healthier planet.

Professor Dr Gour Gobinda Goswami, pro-vice chancellor of Uttara University, was present as a special guest.

Professor Dr Md Mijanur Rahman, dean of the School of Science and Engineering and director of CRT, Uttara University, delivered the speech as a keynote speaker and Sheikh Yasha Shan, director of IRC, Uttara University, chaired the programme.

keynote speaker:
Program Chair:

Professor Dr. Md. Mijanur Rahman, Dean, SoS
Sheikh Yasha Shan, Director, Institutional Ranking Cell

SDG 17 emphasises the critical importance of collaboration across governments, businesses, academia, and civil society to achieve the global sustainability agenda.

During the keynote address, Mijanur Rahman discussed the essential role of partnerships in achieving SDG 17.